Detailed Action

Election/Restriction

1. This application contains different groups of inventions:

Group I related to claims 1-56 and pertaining to class 705.

Group II related to claims 57-68 and pertaining to class 709.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single invention for prosecution on the merits.

Newly added claims 57-68 drawn to a method for communicating data between a wellsite and a remote data access location which classified in 709 required further search. Therefore, Applicant's is advised to select or elect one of the different groups or species of his invention.

If Applicant selects the group I claims, the following genus-species election is required.

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: claims 4-6, 16, 18. The claims recite distinct species for the generic claimed element "the activities".

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 generic.

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: claims 22-25. The claims recite distinct species for the generic claimed element "two or more way communication system".

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 generic.

4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: claims 31-35 and 37-40. The claims recite distinct species for the generic claimed element "communication system".

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 27 generic.

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: claim 43. The claims recite distinct species for the generic claimed element "the on-site personnel with the off-site service personnel".

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 42 generic.

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: claim 46. The claims recite distinct species for the generic claimed element "the activities".

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 45 generic.

7. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: claim 49. The claims recite distinct species for the generic claimed element "two or more way communication system".

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 48 generic.

8. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: claims 51-52. The claims recite distinct species for the generic claimed element "the off-site service person directing the on-site activity off-site".

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 50 generic.

9. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: claim 56. The claims recite distinct species for the generic claimed element "the off-site service person directing the on-site activity off-site".

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 generic.

10. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
